When the State of Florida was criss-crossed with hurricanes in 2004, and again in 2006, Henry LaBrie came to the aid of many homes, businesses, and churches throughout Florida to give them the support they needed. In Texas, in Louisiana, and in Florida, Henry LaBrie has been willing to put his business on the line to help those overcome by everything from natural disasters to mold remediation subcontracting work. No one knows what the coming hurricane season holds for the State of Florida. But everyone knows that Henry LaBrie and his teams of skilled workers will be the first crews on the job in the event of any emergency, just as they are the first to your doorstep when any other construction, water damage, or similar problem arises.

Integrity, skill, speed, and responsiveness. That's Henry LaBrie.
