

Floodmasters completed over a million dollars of storm repair for our church in record time and with minimal frustrations. They relieved us of the burden of negotiating with the insurance companies, engineers, subcontractors, and city inspectors. What could have been a set back for our church became a real advance. We are very pleased with their services and recommend them to homeowners, churches, and businesses both large and small.

Randy Clark
Triumph Church